In determining that the defendant is subject to the rebuttable presumption(s) set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), the Court finds:

- X (A) Probable cause to believe that the defendant committed a controlled substance offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed under Titles 21 or 46; or
- (B) Probable cause to believe that the defendant committed an offense under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c); or

- and the defendant has a prior conviction for one of the crimes described in subparagraphs (1) through (3) above, and said conviction, or the release from imprisonment therefor, is less than five years old and was committed while the defendant was on pre-trial release.

The Court, in finding that there are no conditions or combination of conditions which reasonably will assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of any other person and the community has considered and rejected alternatives. Among the alternatives considered, the Court has rejected house arrest and a daily reporting scheme. In rejecting these alternatives, the Court notes the gravity of the offense and the substantial penalties which may possibly be imposed.

D. Additional Directives

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(2)-(4), the Court directs that:

The defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; and

The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; and

That, on order of a court of the United States, or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceedings.
